I Listen to the wind
To the wind of my soul;
I listen to my words but they fall far below
I'm a lanky, baby I'm lanky
Just a little bit so

Don't you feel the change a coming From another side of time Breaking down the walls of signs Lifting shadows from your mind
Placing back the missing mirrors
That before you couldn't find Filling mysteries of existence
That yesterday left behind

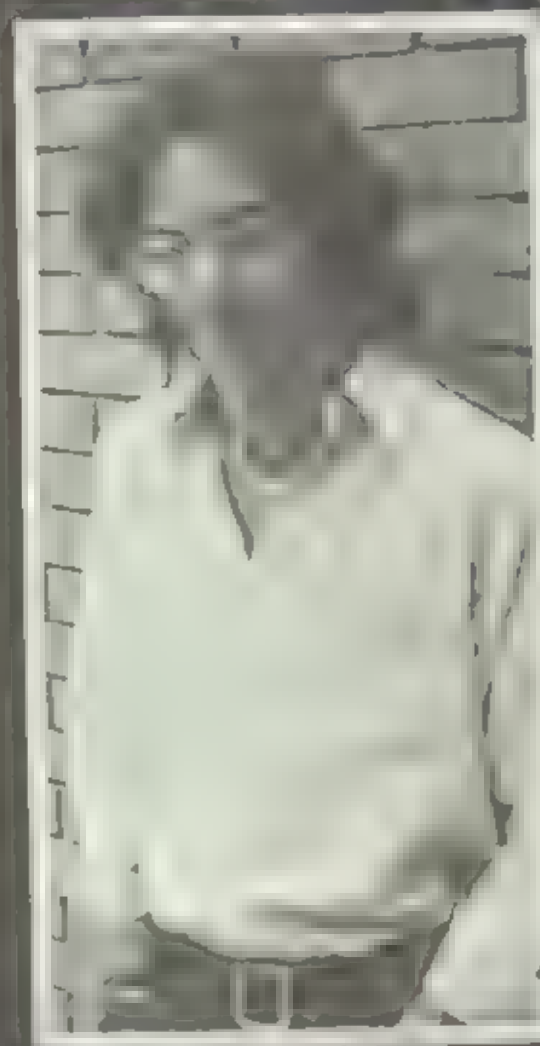

Morning has broken
Sweet the rain is falling
Gentle from heaven
Like the first dewfall
On the first grass

Now I've been happy lately
Cause I'm on the edge of darkness
There's a peace here
Oh peace here
Take this love
Cherish it

Yes, I've been moving a long time
Just only up and down

Did it take long to find me
I ask the faithful light
Did it take long to find me
and are you going to stay the night?

two roads diverged in a yellow wood, and sorry I could not travel both and be one traveler, long I stood and looked down one as far as I could to where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, just as fair,
and having perhaps the better claim,
because it was grassy and wanted wear, though as far that the passing there had worn them equally about the same.

I should be telling this with a sigh somewhere ages and ages hence:
two roads diverged in a wood, and-I took the one less traveled by,
and that has made all the difference.

the most beautiful and most profound emotion we can experience is the sensation of the mystical. it is the savor of all true science. he to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer wonder and stand rapt in awe, is as good as dead. to know that what is impenetrable to us really exists, manifesting itself as the highest wisdom and the most radiant beauty which our dull facilities can comprehend only in their most primitive forms — this knowledge, this feeling is at the center of true religiousness

CHAMPS
1972

Country Day is steadily moving away from the old fashioned sit and listen type classes. more and more emphasis is being taken from the teacher and put on the student. The Learning Center is the first test of this student learning process.

Instead of being taught, in some classes the student is put in the position of having to learn. The teacher is a reference. In the long run, it is the student who must dig up the information he needs.

In the end, it will be the student who make the Learning Center a success or a failure. We have been waiting a long time to show we understand that with freedom comes responsibility. It will succeed.

Aeneas Karthage

Miratur molem Aeneas, magalia quondam, miratur portas strepitumque et strata viarum.
Instant ardentes Tyrii, pars ducere muros, molirique arcem et manibus subvolvere saxa, pars optare locum tecto et concludere sulco.
Iura magistratusque legunt sanctumque sena-tum; hic portus alii effodiunt; hic alta theatri fundamenta locant alii, immanesque columnas rupibus excidunt, scaenis decora alta futuris.
Qualis apes aestate nova per florea rura exercet sub sole labor, cum gentis adultos educunt fetos, aut cum liquentia mella stipant et dulci distendunt nectare cellas, aut onera accipiunt venientum, aut agmine facto, ignavum fucos pecus a praesepibus arcent: fervet opus, redolentque thymo fragrantia mella. "O fortunati quorum iam moenia surgunt!" Aeneas ait, et fastigia suspicit urbis.

AIR CONDITIONING, INC.

Through centuries of scourges and disasters, brought about by your code of morality, you have cried that your code had been broken; that the scourges were punishment for breaking it, that men were too weak and too selfish to spill all the blood it required. You damned man, you damned existence, you damned this earth, but never dared to question your code. You went on crying that your code was noble, but human nature was not good enough to practice it. And no one rose to ask the question: Good?-by what standard?
